

Building a Home

Bringing the stories of Building A Home to YOU through Live Readings

Building a Home tells the stories of six children from Syria, Kazakhstan, Mexico, and Pakistan who are now living, playing, and going to school in Nogojiwanong-Peterborough.

Building A Home was written and illustrated by Casandra Lee and commissioned by the New Canadians Centre Peterborough.

Author Visits

Casandra Lee can visit your school, classroom, event, or organisation to read Building A Home, discuss the approach to creating this book, answer questions, and engage the audience in creative and expressive activities and/or discussions about newcomer experiences.

Available Virtually or In-Person

Fee: $200/hour

In-person visits will also include associated costs for travel and accommodation if needed.*

To book an author visit, please contact Casandra Lee at casandramlee@gmail.com

Learn about immigration & the New Canadians Centre

The New Canadians Centre can speak in classrooms, events, and organisations about immigration, newcomer experiences, and our work. These visits may include a reading of Building A Home by a staff member of the New Canadians Centre and/or a newcomer speaker from the Living Library Program.

Available Virtually

There is no cost associated with this; however, donations to the New Canadians Centre are welcome

We can speak in locations in our service areas of Peterborough & Northumberland Counties.

To request a speaking engagement from the New Canadians Centre, please contact Bhisham Ramoutar at bhisham@nccpeterborough.com

You can also combine an author visit with a speaking engagement from the New Canadians Centre or request a customised session. Applicable fees will apply.

Please contact Bhisham Ramoutar about this option: bhisham@nccpeterborough.com
