Planting for the Prairie at Hazel Bird Nature Reserve, 4639 Robson Rd, Baltimore

Let's join the Nature Conservancy of Canada for a wonderful day of planting in the tallgrass prairie!

We will help plant plugs in sandy soil, making the digging easy and enjoyable for everyone. All necessary tools, including trowels and gloves, will be provided.

This event will proceed rain or shine, so please dress for the conditions: rubber boots, long layers of comfortable clothing you don't mind getting dirty, a hat and a change of dry clothes. Also, please bring a lunch/something to eat and water.

Registration is required – please contact Anna at anna@nccpeterborough.ca, (905) 519-3472.

We will meet at the Hazel Bird Nature Reserve. The gravel laneway at 4639 Robson Road will lead to parking at the barn.

October 22 | Tuesday, 12:00 – 2:00pm In-Person

Pumpkin-carving at the Women's Group at 600 Williams Street, Cobourg

As the fall season begins, we invite you to celebrate with us and experience the fun Canadian tradition of pumpkin-carving!

We will provide the pumpkins and tools. All you need to bring is your imagination!

Registration is required by October 20 - please contact Anna at anna@nccpeterborough.ca, (905) 519-3472.

October 25 | Friday, 3:00 – 5:00pm In-Person
